Even Better

Perhaps you already enjoy coming to the library regularly, or maybe you are thinking of coming for the first time. Either way, if you are at least 14 years old, you can get more out of your library experience and offer something back to the community by volunteering. Whether you want to volunteer once a week or once a month, there is bound to be something to spark your interest.

Do you like working with people?

You'll enjoy volunteering at the Friends of the Library Gift and Book Shop, special events, and our biannual Used Book Sales. Or perhaps you'd like to be a "greeter" at one of our libraries or assist with special programs.

Would you prefer working behind the scenes?

You can help with mailings, book labeling, covering and repair, preparing craft materials, straightening magazines or similar tasks to assist the circulation or reference desk.

Do you just plain enjoy handling books?

Help us sort, box and display donations.

Almost any skill can be put to good use as a Library Volunteer.

Start today by completing this form and returning it to your library or mail it to:
Jefferson Library Foundation, 10200 W. 20th Ave., Lakewood, CO 80215
